Hill Family Love Offering

As many of you know, the Jeff and Heather Hill family has been walking through an incredibly difficult season. Jeff has been bravely fighting stage four metastatic adenocarcinoma. His strength, faith, and quiet courage have carried them through so much, but at this time, his health has declined, and they are now preparing for the reality of end-of-life care. If you would like to support the family financially during this time you may do so through your offering online by using the dropdown option or in person giving by putting a memo of “Hill Family” on your envelope.

Your Attention Please:

Please take the time to stop by the Connect Center to update your church profile. This information helps us to stay connected! We ask that all updates be made no later than TODAY, September 14, 2025. Thank you.
